RECEIVER FOR CITY OF OGDEN

LIVES NEAR TO

Visiting Salt Lake.

TY-THREE YEARS.

John Allen, Naturalist

Likes Quiet Life.

'I am contented out there in San Juar ounty," said Mr. Allen yesterday after toon. "We live an independent life. The and is rich wherever there is sufficient vater, and we can raise everything we leed. We have as fine fruit as can be rown. We raise vegetables and grain and stock. If need he, we could proide our clothing without outside help or we grow the wool. There are only bout twenty-five families in the entiregion, and we are like one family. In my leisure time I can be close to nature "I would not exchange my life for life."

tion, will come into the federal court this morning in Salt Lake, when the city council and executive officers are cited to answer a charge of contempt for not kaying paid the judgment of about $25,000 recently rendered against the city for hydrant rental.

Mr. Weaver, the receiver for the old company, was in Salt Lake yesterlay and some important move may be made in the line of enforcing the address.

The treasurer has been subasses to court with the court of the sand and river, far in the southeastern part of Utah, for over a quarter of a century has been decreased and and possessing an individuality as strong as any one of these famous writers on and educated in that land which has produced so many sturdy men and noted scientists, bis early days were devoted to the study of nature on his native.

The treasurer has been subpoenaed into court with the books of the city, and the cashier of the Jælen State bank, where the city funds are kept, has been also summoned to appear in court with the books.

In a somewhat similar case at Memphis, Tenn., the federal court appointed a receiver to manage the financial end of the city until the debt was liquidated. It is possible that the plaintiffs might go even to that length and ask for a receiver for Ogden City.

PRIMARIES TONIGHT.

Indications Point to Heavy Turnout by Both Political Parties.

Everything is in readiness for the primaries of both parties tonight, The fight for the mayoralty nominations will be settled when the personnel of the various district delegations is made up.

Indications point to the largest attendance in years. Much interest has been worked up in both sides. The Democrats are specially enthusiastic.
They feel confident of winning the fight at the polls and for this reason they will turn out to their primaries in large numbers. The mayoralty nomination is in doubt, but it is believed to lie between Charles Crane and John S. Bransford.

The fight in the Republican primaries will, of course, be between Thompson and Buckle. Both sides profess to believe they will be victorious, but both will see to it that all their supporters turn out.

STOLEN HORSES FOUND

NATURE'S HEART Sergeant Burbridge Recovers Animals for Mrs. Hatch and Mr. Hanson.

The horse and buggy stolen from Mrs. Hatch of Wood's Cross at the state fair grounds on Friday, and the horse and saddle stolen from Mr. Hanson of West Jordan at the same place the evening before, were located by Sergeant Burbidge yesterday, afternoon in the pasture of Bailey & Sons at Eighth South and First West streets in this city.

The animals had been turned loose in the pasture and seemed to be none the worse for their adventure. The saddle, buggy and harness were all in the pasture.

No trace of the thieves was found. The theory of the officers is that the horses were stolen by reckless boys who turned them fur the pasture after taking a ride. Sherif Abbott of Davis county was in the city yesterday afternoon in search of the Hatch property.
